THE gallant Knights who sallied forth,
In tournament to meet,
Are home again, we're pleased to say,
And each one on his feet.
No need of shutter, ambulance—
They to themselves were true—
And not a single Knight was slain
By "five fifteen, twenty-two."

THE gardens look much better since the rain.

A LITTLE street cleaning might be done now.

RIPLEY is to have a circus on the 16th inst.

CLEAN up your premises. Use lime liberally.

Six hundred carpenters are on a strike at Cincinnati.

CHEAP printing at the BULLETIN office. Please remember.

COAL sells at 10 cents a bushel. There is a large supply in the city.

THE steamer City of Ironton is laid up at the wharf at Ripley and is for sale.

THE Kentucky Planing Mill is running full time with much work on hand to do.

PINEAPPLES, bananas, strawberries and oranges are abundant in Maysville just now.

THE Limestone Flour Mills is largely behind with orders. It will take a month or more to catch up.

For all kinds of flowers and plants call at H. H. Cox's flower store on Court street. Prices very moderate.

THE woodpeckers are here. In old times their arrival was taken as a warning to plant corn and go a fishing.

HUGH POWER'S SONS have just bought a large load of stoneware of Mr. Gus Hammer agent for T. F. Rippert & Co. Greensboro, Pa.

THE question now is how many "stubborn" men there are on that jury. The number is estimated all the way from one to ten.

In the competitive drill by the Knights Templar for the prize banner at Covington, it was won by DeMolay Commandery No. 12, of Louisville.

DETECTIVES Wappenstein and Crawford of Cincinnati, are in Maysville to-day, attending the trial of James Day, on the charge of housebreaking.

A LARGE amount of mischief is developing itself in boys who run at large after dark. It won't be long before some of them get into trouble, unless they are looked after.

A HARDIN county justice concluded a recent marriage ceremony thusly: "Them as this court has joined together, let no man put asunder, but suffer little children to come unto them, so help you God."

Ask for National Export.

No beverage has gained such a widespread reputation as Moerlein's Lager Beer, which is bottled by the National Lager Beer Bottling Company, of Cincinnati, O. Nothing but the best old lager beer manufactured is bottled by the "National," and this accounts for the great reputation it has acquired for putting up a good article. The company ships beer to all parts of the globe, and every one proclaim it as the beverage of the nation. The company makes it their special business to bottle only genuine Export Lager Beer, and, having inaugurated the plan, it proposes to so continue the original intention that not only here, but in all parts of the country, the reputation of the beer will be kept up to the highest altitude. m15t

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. Samuel Thomas and Mr. Milton Johnson, of Bracken county, favored the BULLETIN with a call.

Mrs. Mary Allen, of this city, is visiting at Hamilton, O.

Lieut. Nat. Phister and wife will leave for Fort Stockton, Texas on Thursday next.

Miss Mary Lang and Mr. John Griener are to be married at Ripley, soon.

Miss Mary Kilpatrick was married to Frank Chase, at Augusta, on the 3d inst.

Mr. E. Lamden is at Lexington attending the races

Mr. T. M. Dora, one of the best citizens of Bracken, who has been urged by his many friends to become a candidate for County Judge, has declined the honor they desire to confer upon him. The place would fit him well.

THE Scientific American gives the following as a durable whitewash: For one barrel of color wash, half a bushel white lime, three pecks of hydraulic cement, ten pounds umber, ten pounds ochre, one pound Venetian red, quarter pound lampblack. Slake the lime; cut the lampblack with vinegar; mix well together; add the cement and fill the barrel with water. Let it stand twelve hours before using, and stir frequently while putting it on. This is not white, but of a light stone color, without the unpleasant glare of white. The color may be changed by adding more or less of the colors. This wash covers well, needing only one coat, and is superior to anything known, excepting oil paint.

THERE is quite a flutter in fashionable society at Ripley, over a wedding that is to occur on the 18th inst. The prospective bride is Miss Lucie D. Snedeker, one of Ripley's most popular young ladies. The groom is Mr. Kendal Morgan, the well-known clerk of the steamer Ohio. The marriage will take place at the Presbyterian Church, and the attendants will be Misses Cora Young, Aloirda Boyd and Miss Jennie Morgan, of Augusta, Mr. John Snedeker, Mr. John Ramey and Mr. Valentine of Augusta. The costumes have been ordered from Cincinnati, and the affair will create quite a sensation. Rooms have been engaged at the hotels for guests from abroad.

THE Ashland Express says:

Last week we spoke of the discovery of splendid oil on Kentucky, White Creek, on the land of Mr. Miller. Since then, a number of our citizens have expressed their doubts in regard to it, thinking perhaps it is a put up job for speculation.

Determined to satisfy ourselves by a personal examination; on Monday we visited the spring and found the oil still running, and we are satisfied there has been no attempt to deceive any one. The spring is near the foot of a big hill, and the oil issues from beneath a large ledge of rock, and it would be utterly out of the power of the shrewdest man in the world to attempt to commit a fraud. The oil as it issues from the rock is apparently pure as refined petroleum, having, however, a heavier body, and burns equal to the best headlight oil. It is a beautiful light amber color. We have a specimen of it in our office, which we saw collected from the spring, and all who desire to see it, can call at our sanctum, and see for themselves the most splendid specimen of crude oil that ever issued from the earth.

THE Maysville Commandery of Knights Templar, and Haucke's band, returned home by the Morning Mail to-day.

SOME new wheat which was sown near Americus, Ga., on the 26th of November, 1881, harvested April 7th, 1882, and yielding twenty bushels to the acre, was exhibited at Cincinnati a few days ago.

THE mortgage on the Mt. Sterling coal road has been cancelled and there is now no indebtedness on the road. It will probably soon be extended to the coal fields of Morgan county, says the Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

THE speech of Col. Breckinridge in the turnpike case is spoken of as a very able and eloquent effort. The case was given to the jury about four o'clock yesterday afternoon but up to this time a verdict has not been rendered.

MULL dresses, with many polka-dotted and scalloped flounces, the round full waist set off with a broad sash of white faille or moire antique, are suggested as the prettiest attire for sweet girl graduates on commencement day.

YESTERDAY afternoon, Wm. Musick, a prisoner at the jail for carrying a concealed deadly weapon, escaped while the door was opened for cleaning up the building. He was afterward captured on Newdigate's hill and returned to his cell.

G. A. MCCARTHEY is receiving daily all that is new and desirable in the way of queensware, and is offering decided bargains. He takes pleasure in exhibiting his stock whether you desire to buy or not. A visit to his establishment will well repay the trouble.

THE Mason County Sunday School Union have decided to hold a County Convention and Picnic of all the Sunday schools in this county who wish to co-operate, at Lewisburg, on Friday June 23, 1882.

The following is a programme of the subjects which will be discussed in the convention.

1. The Sunday school teachers.
2. The Sunday school superintendent.
3. The Sunday school in a particular church.
4. The design and work of the American Sunday School Union.
5. The Mason County Sunday School Union.
6. The Kentucky State Sunday School Union.
7. The International Sunday School Convention.

UNTIL recently, there stood on the Kentucky bank of the Ohio river, about a mile above Vanceburg, an immense poplar tree. It was nearly nine feet in diameter at the base, and sixty-eight feet to the first limb. Many years ago a steamboat passenger going down the river, was so struck with this large tree that he bought it, paying Mr. Burris, then the proprietor, a twenty-dollar gold piece for it, with the injunction to preserve the tree for him until he should return. But he never returned, and time changed the ownership of the farm, and high water washed away the banks of the river until, to save the tree, it was cut down some time since. The floods of the past season carried the "first cut" of the old tree down to the Vanceburg landing, where it was lodged and tied up.

COUNTY POINTS.

DOVER.

Hon J D Kehoe and Mr Dennis Fitzgerald were here Saturday

Mrs Ben Hay and son, of Cincinnati, are visiting here.

Gardens were injured and lands much washed by the late storm.

Miss Mattie Black and Miss Josie Smith, of Ripley, were visitors here recently.

The prospect for a large wheat crop was never better it not being hurt by the late freeze. A large crop of tobacco will be planted in this vicinity the present year, judging from the preparation being made. W.

FASHIONS.

Brooches fasten bonnet strings.
Bronze-brown hair is the fashion.
Linings of mantles are rich and costly.
In a bonnet there is a combination of myrtle green velvet and primrose crepe.

China crape shawls, black and white, never go out of vogue for elderly women.
Dark and black straw hats will be much worn with all sorts of costumes, including very bright colored one.

Among the growing innovations in modern fashions is the wearing of velvet in all seasons, not excepting mid-summer.

The agreeable features of summer styles are prevalence of short round skirts, the absence of bustles, the variety in shapes of hats and bonnets, in costumes and colors.

The new material known as leatherette is being brought into use in numerous mechanical and ornamental applications. It is so perfect an imitation of leather that the people are utterly unaware that they are handling something other than leather itself, and its serviceable nature renders the detection still more difficult.

The bonnet of the most pronounced originality brought out this season is "London Witch." It is an immense turned-up scoop hat, brimless in the back and short and flat at the sides, an emphasized, exaggerated old style Dunstable. It is vastly becoming to piquant faces. It is trimmed with quantities of flowers or feathers or ribbons, at the option of the wearer.

How to brush velvet is a thing, easy as it seems, not known to everybody. The whole secret lies in the management of the brush. Take a hat-brush that is not too soft, but has the bristles elastic, that will return at once to their original state after being pressed aside. Hold this firmly under the palm of the hand, in the direction of the grain, and with the bristles downward; and pressing them, first, gently into the substance of the velvet; and the brush must be lifted up and placed in a similar manner over every part required to be brushed. By this means velvet will be improved, instead of deteriorated, and will last for years.

A LARGE amount of coal from the Big Sandy country was delivered at Lexington recently at ten cents a bushel. The Press says: "Our people are at length getting a large return on the cost of our railroads. At present prices of fuel, as compared with old-time prices, the saving will in a few years more than equal the original investment in railroads."
